

Use this leaflet to choose your ‘top ten’ carols.

Which will be most popular?

To find out, come and join the celebration on Christmas Eve!

Singing has long been a part of Christmas. According to tradition angel choirs announced Christ’s birth, and music still speaks of harmony and peace to be found in the midst of life’s noise and discord.

Christmas Carols invite us to sing together with joy and goodwill. They express love of life and love of God. This is your invitation to join in Christmas Eve celebrations at Broad Street Methodist Church... and to help choose the ‘top ten’ carols to be sung!

If your favourite carol is not included in the list on the right, then write it here and we will see where it might end up on the list of favourites.

Return the completed form to Church by Tuesday 17th December

Angels from the realms of glory
As with gladness men of old
Away in a manger
Come and join the celebration
Cradled in a manger meanly
Ding Dong! Merrily on high
God rest ye merry gentlemen
Good Christians all rejoice
Good King Wenceslas looked out
Hark! the herald angels sing
Infant holy, infant lowly
In the bleak mid-winter
It came upon a midnight clear
It was on a starry night
Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Love came down at Christmas
Mary’s Boy Child (Long time ago in Bethlehem)
O come all ye faithful
O come O come Immanuel
O little town of Bethlehem
Once in Royal David’s City
On Christmas night all Christians sing
See amid the winter’s snow
See him lying on a bed of straw (Calypso carol)
Silent night, holy night
The angel Gabriel from heaven came
The first Nowell
The Holly and the Ivy
We Three Kings of Orient are
While Shepherds watched their flocks by night
